1. Opta Facts

Washington Spirit – Orlando Pride

October 18, 2025

- The Spirit defeated Orlando, 1–0, in the first regular-season meeting between last year’s NWSL Championship match participants. Washington is looking to become the second team to record multiple regular-season wins over the team that beat them in the title match the year before, after North Carolina defeated Portland three times in the regular season and again in the Championship in 2018.
- Washington’s club-record regular-season unbeaten run extended to 12 matches (W5 D7) with a 1–1 draw at North Carolina on Saturday. The Spirit have locked up second place for a second straight season after finishing in the top two just once in their first 10 NWSL seasons (2nd in 2016).
- Orlando Pride scored the only goal of the game via a stoppage-time own goal in a 1–0 win over Portland on Friday. It marked the fifth lead-changing goal in stoppage-time for the Pride this season (3 go-ahead, 2 equalizers), the most by any team in a single regular season in NWSL history.
- Trinity Rodman attempted five shots, including scoring Washington’s goal, in the 1–1 draw with North Carolina on Saturday. Since returning from injury in August, Rodman has attempted 37 shots, four more than any other player in the NWSL in that time, hitting 19 on target, five more than any other player.
- Marta has recorded 12 career goal contributions in all competitions against Washington Spirit (10 goals, 2 assists), her most against any NWSL opponent. Only Alex Morgan (11) has scored more goals against the Spirit in all competitions than Marta (10, tied with Jess McDonald).
